2018 U.S. NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Lance Wallnau

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2018 AM SESSION

Thank you so much, and thank you to all of you who have already begun to change history. Americans do not know it - unless they travel around the world - how many countries pray for America. In other nations where they don't have the security of so much freedom, they feel the fragile edge between themselves and suppression - persecution. In fact there is an epidemic of persecution against Christianity globally that is taking place right now. But you're not hearing about it, because the fake news media is talking about other things.

I can remember when, oh, a decade ago I started talking about this this idea. I just could not get out of my head. It was an obsession, it was this obsession with the fact that

- » the great commission was going to involve us, seriously, understanding a fresh template on how nations would disciple;
- » that we are going to come face to face with whoever is controlling the gates of influence,
- » that those gates are going to become solidified by influencers who will either be for or against us,
- » that we cannot exist as a kind of holy subculture. We are going to have to go into all the world and that includes all the systems.

I listed them and I called The Seven Mountain of Influence, so it was like a picture. And who would have thought that from there to today it would materialize as aggressively? Nobody even argues with the template anymore.

THE SEVEN SPHERES OR SYSTEMS OF INFLUENCE

1. I said the church (religion), of course, and its powerful religious freedoms is over here, somehow awkwardly figuring out how we relate to the rest of culture. In many cases we have built a wall between us and the rest of the world.
2. Over here are all the families of communities (the other mountains in the Seven Mountain teaching).
3. The education system educates them.

4. The government system and the laws, the Supreme Court, and the military are all concentrated in this one ever increasing and powerful central thing called government.
5. Then we find out that right next to government is the power of media that can work either as a true prophet or a false prophet manipulating the masses one way or the other to align with or align against this thing called government.
6. Then as we come out further, there the arts and entertainment - the Hollywood and the celebrity world - from NFL football players to entertainers and movie makers. This then becomes a high place.
7. And what underwrites it all is business. The economic interests that literally determine the health and the viability of all seven of those domains.

 Key: Whoever controls the dialogue in those places has the power to shape a nation. Literally the United States is in the chaos it is in, not because the majority of people are in chaos, but because the devil knows how to disciple nations better than the church. Part of the recalibration, part of the timing for what's happening right now is I think there needs to be an update and an embracing of the new map. Because these seven spheres of influence is already established and we are moving past this paradigm.

THE RIGHT TIME

I cannot but think that it is ironic that the name of the conference is what it is. Because I, for years, have had a connection with you guys and been interested, and watching you. You are part of my tribe. We overlap so constantly and yet I knew that at some point we would meet, and I would be able to speak. It is like the Lord said that He would do it at the right time. But I did not know He meant that literally. He said, "I'll do it the right time."

I was thinking, "Lord, we have a national election. Everything is falling apart." The Lord said, "At the right time. Don't worry about it." So this is evidently where my speaking to you is supposed to be.

THE GATES OF HELL

As you see this part (where we think the gates of hell are) doesn't this make sense. When you talk about the gates of hell and we talk about well, you know, 'I will build My church again'. We still have this abstract idea that the gates of hell are some kind of principality layer floating around. Let me tell you where the gates of hell are located.

The gates refer to the councils. I will draw Chinese gates here because they look easier than American gates. (He draws them at the tops of each mountain or sphere of influence.)

 Key: The gates of hell, or the councils of hell, are the specific councils of principalities over the areas where the greatest influence exists in shaping your nation.

That is why you see the Supreme Court battle in the U.S. as dramatic and as violent as it was because that is a gate of influence out of which massive change can happen concentrated in the hands of a few people.

Think of the enemy of our soul as a strategist. He wants leverage. He would if he can get a hold in this sphere of influence, he will change things as he wills.

WHO IS 'FLYING THE PLANE' HAS THE INFLUENCE

Some people can understand better with this example. Take an airplane. It doesn't matter how many thousands of people are riding in the plane, what matters is who is flying the plane. It matters who has the microphone and is talking to everyone during the flight.

So, if the devil can get 3 percent of the population (the pilot, the flight attendants) to have the strategic power, then ninety seven percent of the people that are passengers are going to have to put in their earbuds or earphones to block out the noise just so that they can have a little space around their head. But by far, the strategic territory is up there in the cockpit. It's up there where the microphone is.

This is why the enemy is very fast to get hold of media. He is very quick to get hold of entertainment. He is very quick to get a hold of academia.

 Key: This is the long game we are wrestling with now because millennials are coming of age.

Much to our chagrin, we are discovering that 70 percent of our college professors are not centrists in the United States. They are left of center. They are actually more Marxist. So, you've got 70 percent Marxists and only 8 percent can even exist as a conservative and have a career. Yet the government is actually funding the universities that are now taking your sons and daughters and not training them in how to think, they're teaching them what to think.

 Key: The things they're putting in them are a narrative that actually undoes their ability to support the future of America in the way that you and I were supported in the past.

 Key: They are being sold a victim oppressor ideology where one person is being hurt at the expense of the other person who is triumphant.

 Key: If we don't start to learn what the real battle is, it is going to be very difficult to disciple a nation, if you don't know what the enemy's discipling them to think. Does that make sense?

THE TRUTH SETS US FREE

It's the truth that sets you free. I used to always be looking for an anointing, laying on of hands, a prophecy - some kind of angel, an impartation. Then one day it occurred to me,

 Key: If it's the truth that sets you free. It's a lie that holds you captive.

 Key: The most powerful antidote we need right now is for people like you to be praying

1. in such a way that you are neutralizing the advance of the enemy in the battle of ideas
2. and getting behind the individual(s) God raises up in each of these spheres as a thought leader.

Each of these spheres of influence is a vertical. Every one of them. We've got Candice Owens now and Charlie Kirk - they are calling them verticals. The ideas I have been teaching and now being adopted all over the place are just called different things by different people which is perfectly fine.

But these spheres - education is a powerful one because it's discipling in the next generation. I have a friend who is a conservative professor who got disinvited from Pepperdine after he began to challenge his students on how to think, rather than what to think. He wasn't indoctrinating them to his ideas. He was teaching them how to find the fallacies in their own positions, thoughts. And as we talked about it, he said, "The good news, Lance, is this. Colleges are doing a terrible job now of training the students in the depth of what to think. They're just being emotionally wrapped around what to think. This means it won't take much truth to be able to cause them to question what they're thinking."

Pardon me if I just move fast because I think a lot of you guys are already almost on the same page. It is ironic that I'm here during an election cycle like this. It is absolutely ironic that I am here.

I flew in and did a business meeting with five hundred business people in Charlotte, North Carolina. I got a phone call that the President is coming through. They want you to go join them in Charlotte. And I thought - the President - they do not announce his schedule too far in advance. I just left Charlotte with the President's rally interviewing the congressmen who are Christians that are running to help them be able to do what they have to do.

I flew from there to here. From here I fly right back to Washington, D.C. for the midterm elections to work with groups of believers back there. We are in a jet stream, right now, of governmental affairs and this is a message that is not just for the United States. They pray all over the world for us because they recognize that if we go down a world order goes down that protects the freedom of the church globally. This is the reason why it is so imperative that we understand what God has done.

I was talking with Graham last night - I have very little self-control – when I heard that he was in town, I wanted to see him immediately. It did not occur to me that there was a time zone difference and that I had to speak in the morning which is why I have coffee right now. We were up to like 2:00 in the morning because I love seeing him. I hardly ever get to see him, and he said something to me that I cannot remember.

You probably do remember because you said it so lucidly. In the book of Acts Peter brings up two questions. "What does this mean, and what am I to do?"

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE 2016 ELECTION TO THE CHURCH

What does it mean - what just happened - and then what must I do?

I have to be honest with you. I think the church is still a little bit foggy on what God did in 2016 and is still ambiguous on what it is supposed to do next.

 Key: I am telling you, we need the women to be able to be clear because I am finding that when men get confused God raises up women to provide the leadership.

I encourage you to look at the mountains of influence. Look at how media, look at how academia, look at how Hollywood, and look at how CEOs and businesses are influencing what is taking place.

TODAY' S BATTLE – JESUS AND HIS INHERITANCE

Here is the battle that is taking place right now. Jesus is being given His inheritance.

Let's talk about updating, upgrading or the word I am using now is "recalibrating".

I had a friend of mine, I was so envious of him, because he had a son with him in Thailand. His son was around 20 years old. I said, "What are you doing with your son here?" He said, "Well, we are on vacation and we are traveling together." I said, "Your son wants to be with you on vacation?"

I have to bribe my kids to be with me on vacation. I have to let them pick the location so that I can show up and be there. And he said, "Oh no. I learned with my son, Jason, a long time ago that as they get older you have to recalibrate and reframe your relationship with them. For instance, you are in the chain of command up until the point where they start making decisions. At that point, you have to move from the place of command to the place of council. Because if you still try to tell them what to do, and you are always coaching, then you are not on the list of the top five people they call when they have a problem, or they have a breakthrough. You are the obligatory parent that the wife says, 'Call your father on his birthday.' " And I saw or understood what he was saying.

I asked him, "What is the right age for that?" He said, "Well, you can do it at any time, but you need to catch it in their teens. What you want to do is, you want to start to engage - especially millennials - in the conversation about what is going on, and don't just become the answer person that tells them what they need to do. You need to stop doing that."

RECALIBRATING

This recalibrating, it is kind of like a G.P.S. so you know when you get off, it is recalibrating. Then I realized something, I have friends of mine that their marriage is going south after the children left the house. And I realized twenty-five years, twenty-two years, what does that telling me?

Part of it is telling me that the glue that held the family together was the children. What has to happen is that the couple has to recalibrate once the children start to go because they don't know each other now. They only knew each other then and how many of you know everybody changes over time. I am not the same person I was five years ago, and you aren't either. If you are growing, you are not the same. That means you have new passions, new interests, new anxieties, new concerns, new hopes, and new frustrations. Recalibrating means you put the gears together back again.

I started looking focusing on that with my wife. I started focusing on that with my family. And then the Lord says, "You have to recalibrate with Me." I was assuming that the recalibration happens automatically. The Lord said, "No, you are different now than you were five years ago; therefore, you are meeting a different Me than the one you met before. To him who much is given, much more is required. You need to meet the God that is requiring more and then you need to meet the God who gives more Grace for what I am requiring."

Does that make sense?

 Key: The Lord said, "You need to recalibrate with yourself." I thought, what? The Lord said, "You need to update your own self-awareness as to who you are, what your potentials and what your pitfalls are in light of the recalibrating with your destiny."

CONVERGENCE THEORY

After 50 years of age you start entering what Bobby Clinton in the world of research of - leadership emergent theory he calls it, and Peter Wagner actually talked about this a lot. It is called Convergence Theory.

 Key: Convergence is when all that God intended for you in the previous seasons of your life suddenly come around again, and this time the cumulative life experience - including the mistakes you made - are all factored into the maturity with which you handle the most important chapter of your life. Your greatest accomplishments, your greatest legacy, your greatest deposit is in that period which is towards the end of your days because that is when the convergence between your role, your assignment, your personal history, your gift, and your anointing all converge. And typically, when that happens things change, and you are invited into a role that you did not have before. That role gives you greater leverage to be able to do the thing you are uniquely gifted to do that God called you to do before you were born. I believe you are in that place right now.

 Key: I am talking about a convergence update, a reset if you will, a recalibration for all of us based on what God is doing in the world rather than what God is doing in us personally.

We are all kind of narcissistic in that way. If we took a group photo even though you know exactly what you look like, the first face you are going to look for is yours. I do the same thing. Wedding photos. I know what I look like. I can see it any time but as soon as the picture comes up on the screen, I leaned over to Graham and it was during the announcements when Jessica was giving the poem with Lance or dancer or whatever. I said, "Look at that picture. That was when I had darker hair."

What changed? I met Donald Trump. After that picture my hair went gray. My limousine I was traveling in was lit on fire. Antifa protests - all kinds of weird stuff happened. I said, "Why don't they love me? It's never happened in church." We are now recalibrating something.

A TIME OF RECALIBRATION

George Barna wrote an interesting book called The Day the Christians Changed America. I don't know if you read it, but you should be up to date on it.

This is what I believe happened. I believe that if you look at a map the United States and you look at how America is being shaped and disciplined by these powerful gates of influence, I think that people underestimated the force of what Christians are out there in the field. Ironically, Donald Trump did not underestimate.

Donald Trump has been one of the most unusual presidents in history. Normally, Presidents court our vote. We do a picture with them. We do a lunch and then they get us the heck out of the room lest they become embarrassed by association with us.

In Donald Trump's case, he does the exact opposite. He actually believes that Christians represent 100 million people now. They believe 60 million of them are for real. He believes they are the single most powerful demographic for the shaping of America. And, he does not necessarily see himself, ironically, as one of them, although he loves them and has said the sinner's prayer at least five times with various people I know. So it is like your aunt or uncle or parent – you know, you just go by faith, they keep praying it so they must be saved.

In terms of what he – Trump - represents, this is where I want you to really recalibrate with me on this. God is raising up Cyrus rulers all over the earth right now. You've got to catch this. The harvest we lost, we thought, was a harvest of souls. What we lost is actually a harvest of nations.

 Key: The harvest promised to Jesus is not going to be lost.

A moment ago, I was saying we are narcissistic because we focus on ourselves. I want to recalibrate my own personal destiny, my calling, we are all interested. Those kinds of products and seminars and webinars always fly off the shelf. But the reality is, if I may dare say so, you and I are expendable, but the harvest promised to Jesus is not going to be squandered. God is going to give to Jesus what He was promised.

In history past we always looked at it as our personal destiny and the nation stuff was vague. We actually had more faith for the Antichrist when I was growing up than we have for our nations to be disciplined. I could prove that because the book that came out while the Lord was telling me that He was going to put Donald Trump in office - the bestselling book was The Harbinger. One million people bought it because we had more faith for judgment than for deliverance.

When Donald Trump emerged, half the Evangelical church was gagging because they could not figure out why God would choose that one guy. You have 10 people that are all Evangelicals, card carrying, you could scratch and sniff and smell. At one point there was a pastor somewhere who would vouch for some candidate. And then Donald Trump comes along. The only guy who when they asked him in Iowa, "Have you ever sinned?" Now this is like, you want the Christian demographic to vote for you and you have to know the right answer to certain questions. He goes down there. And I saw before I left, he said, "I'm going now to go meet the 'evangelicals' - who is like a rare bird species he was going to go see.

He is putting quotation marks around evangelicals. He has probably not seen this 'flamingo' up here in Manhattan, so he is going to go to Iowa to meet with the 'evangelicals' and they asked, "Well, have you ever sinned?" And poor Mr. Trump is going, "Not that I can think of." Even those of us that are pulling for him are going, "Oh my gosh, this man so smart. Doesn't he know anything? Come on!"

So they ask him, "Well how do you describe your relationship with God." He says, "Well I take my little wafer and I take my little wine..." Come on, he is talking about communion! "My little cracker. My little wafer." I am going, oh my gosh! He figures that is pretty much what a relationship with God is.

When he left Iowa and he came back, things started to change in a rather unique way because he began to develop an affection for those people out there that were evangelicals. He developed an actual liking for them. He would run into them all the time and they were praying for him and praying for him. And he said something interesting, he said, "You know I meet with Christians and Christian leaders and there is one thing that I see.” And I thought, what is he going to say? Is it going to be love, or courage, or compassion, or faith, or loyalty, or vision.

He said, “The number one thing that I see in Christians and particularly their leaders is fear.” That is not exactly the best way to recruit someone into your army. He said, “You are fearful because you are afraid you are going to lose your tax exemptions. You are afraid you are going to - the government is going to come after you - the IRS.” So basically, he understood that his main role was to be like a shepherd or a sheep dog that was protecting the flock because they have fear. It is an interesting situation.

I was not planning to get involved with politics and stuff, but you see, the gates of hell are focusing on raising up their own counterfeit apostolic leadership at the top of each of these important Gates of influence. We have the word “mountains”, but they are simply gates of influence. And there is no argument that these verticals (mountains) are powerful gates of influence. When they want to quote somebody on TV or CNN, they bring in Professor So-and-So or they bring in a business leader. Each one of these verticals (mountains) has its own hierarchy of credibility.

Then Donald Trump comes along. And I'm saying wait a second, this guy may not be the only Christian, but maybe that is a reason why God's picking him that way.

ISAIAH 45 – THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

For sure, I am telling you just as sure as I am sitting there, I hear the words, “Isaiah 45 will be the next President of the United States.” I go to check it out. Well, first, I thought it was so clear, I thought maybe it was a deceiving spirit. I thought, well I could I can nip this in the bud. I am not even going to go to Isaiah 45. I went to Google to check it out.

I want to know if we are the 44th President or I want to know which number we are on. That will take care of this whole thing. And sure enough it says Barack Obama is the 44th President. And I said, “I caught that spirit because he was elected twice!” Then I found out that whatever number you get when you go in, you stick with it until you go out.

Then I jump over to Isaiah forty-five. “Thus says the Lord, it is Cyrus whom I have anointed to subdue nations before him. I will uphold your right hand.” And then it goes down to this, “And this I am going to do, I am going to release the treasures that are hidden and buried in darkness.” And I am reading on and it says, “I am going to do this for My people and for Israel's sake.” I am thinking, “This is the church. This is going to be Israel.” And then it goes on to say, “Though you have not even known Me.” I'm going, “Dear God! What are You up to” Next verse. “Verily, I am a God who hides Himself.”

God will hide Himself in the unlikely candidate. He does this throughout history constantly, stumbling people around.

 Key: If you do not know in your heart what is going on, your eyes and your head will totally deceive you.

I said, "Oh my gosh!" I have not ever heard Benny Hinn teach this one. The anointing! And it is so fragile, it is like, "Don't move!" And it is like, do not grieve the Holy Spirit. I am not going to grieve the Holy Spirit!

Then you have Donald Trump coming in. Boom, boom, boom. You know like Fred Flintstone driving through Bedrock. (This was a cartoon show in the 60's about cavemen.) And I sat there thinking, it says, "Whom I have anointed - though he does not know Me."

Now think about this, when was last time you heard about looking for the person who is anointed that does not know the Lord? Because invariably, we always think about praying for a Christian. Of course. I do not care if the Christian is an incompetent candidate. The one thing most Christians want to know is, is he saved as in, do you know the Lord?

Listen, knowing the Lord does not make you a better driver. It may convict you when you break the speed limit, but it does not make you a better pilot or a surgeon. You know it gives you great potential. You wanted somebody who is competent.

Here's a weird thing. God will raise up people like - and I am thinking about this. Why are we just like we have done a lobotomy on ourselves? Of course this makes total sense.

In history who was it that God raised up to save the English empire in the English speaking world? It was Winston Churchill. Nobody was asking Winston Churchill about his born again credentials. Between scotch and a cigar, he would explain to you his theology. But he actually was able to frame the entire assault on Europe as being this struggle for the survival of Christian civilization against the dark and the light - of this monstrous power which was coming in the form of National Socialism. He actually had a greater grasp of the Christian world view in his day than some of the evangelicals did.

WHO HAS THE ANOINTING?

 Key: Here is my point. God raises up a Lincoln. He raises up a Churchill. He will raise up a Donald Trump because in answer to the desperation of the prayers of His people, you will find that God hides Himself in unlikely vessels. So maybe the real secret here is not trying to get your favorite Christian elected, maybe the secret here is finding out who is anointed to do the most damage to help.

A NEW WORLD VIEW AND AMERICA'S ROLE

What is happening now is, I am inviting you into a new world view and the new world view is the recalibration. We have nations represented here. This is not an American strategy. It is just in America because of its role. America has 50 percent of the global consumption that is holding the economy, holding the sea lanes together, keeping rogue nations and empires in check. Because of that role there is a lot of warfare here and God is doing something unusual. And 20 million Christians came out of the woodwork that were not in any database or polling apparatus and they all voted and it was the most unusual vote in the history of electoral politics because eighty-eight percent of the 22 million people who never even organized themselves all pulled the lever in the same direction out of a concern for the future. That was the reason why the polls - nobody talks about where the polls messed it up - the polls messed it up because the Christians are not in a group that anybody is watching. Christians are largely ignored. We are treated as an oddity and eccentricity.

Anyway, Donald Trump could not think of any sins to repent of. I am trying to get away from him. I am trying to go back to just making a living doing what I normally do - educating Christians on how the world views – how discipling these spheres works. Get your career going. Get your kids going. Go to the top. Be the head and not the tail. Be above and not beneath. You cannot get any more obvious than that. Why? Because that is where the gates of influence are.

 Key: You should be ruling in the midst of your enemies not over here (in the religious sphere of influence) trying to rule instead of them. Does that make sense?

Anyway, I wanted to put this book out. For years, I had it. I would say, “I am going to release it now.” And the Lord would say, “It is not the right time. You missed the window. That one should have been out years ago.”

That is an interesting thought, though. You know the Bible does say “fruit in its season”. We always focus on, you know, the fruit that is there now. But it also means that there is some fruit that is aging and if you do not go get it, and can it, and do something with it, you got to move on to leave it there.

So there goes my great book. So, the Lord says, “I want a book on Donald Trump.” I thought, “Donald Trump? Oh man, there goes my whole reputation now.” The Lord has a great way of reminding me, He says, “There is not that many people who know who you are so don’t worry about it.” That is actually true. I don't worry about it now.

So I write this book and the title of the book is, God's Chaos Candidate, Donald J. Trump and the Great American Unraveling. That is what is happening. We are unraveling, and God is putting a wrecking ball in place because He tells me, Isaiah 45 will be the next President. I find out that is Cyrus. I find the guy is anointed though he does not know the Lord. Then I am checking this guy out and I am realizing God is hiding Himself. And all the evangelicals are having a meltdown because why would God pick the one person we cannot defend? Why can't it be Marco Rubio? Why can't it be Ted Cruz? Why can't it be Ben Carson? Why can't it be Mike Huckabee? Why? Why? Why?

I got the book - I have to tell you, I was so cowardly. I kept holding on to it. Holding on. I figured if I let it go right before the election, I'm obedient, but I'm marginalizing damages. And I get into this book. I say this man is going to be called Cyrus.

I even coined the term before it became popularized. I coined the term ‘Trump delirium syndrome’ and I proclaimed it in the book. I proclaimed it. He will be likened unto Cyrus as a world ruler. I wrote it down in the book. I mean it is nutty stuff like that.

I have friends of mine, of course, calling me and saying, “Lance, you sure you should do this? You know. We love you, Lance and you know, you got a good reputation and it is a shame to squander it all on politics. You think you're getting a little off here?”

So I am going to the Lord, please, I do not want to be deceived. Do not let me be deceived. I do not want to be deceived. I do not need to do this, please. The Lord said, "Just do it." I put the book out during the Feast of Trumpets. This is a great time. During the Feast of Trumpets.

You know, I am like 20 percent Ashkenazi Jew. I go down to visit my family in Israel. I'm speaking at the Feast of Tabernacles. And then I'm doing a diplomatic thing. I'm at the Mt. Zion hotel. I got a group of diplomats in there and I'm working with these guys - 15 or 20 of them - mostly African and Asian nations. I'm in there and a guy comes to the door and he says, "Did you really release that book just before you came down? Can you recall it? There is the Access Hollywood video that got out and you might want to think about how you can get that book back or do some damage control."

I am thinking, "Oh my God! What did he do now?" So, I give all of the diplomats a 15 minute break. I go to my room and I go to turn on the news. I am looking and I said, "Oh, OK. That was 10 years ago. 10 years ago! How bad could it be?" And so I looked at the transcript and thought, "This is so bad!"

This first thing I did is, I get on my knees. "Lord, why have You allowed me to be deceived? Did I not say I did not have to do this? Why did You?" And it is really strange because there are certain times in life when you know the Lord hears your prayers, but He is not answering. There are other times when you know that the devil is resisting. And then there are those rare moments when you know God is not even listening to you at all. It is like He is standing there with His arms folding say, "OK, are you done? You are done."

And this is in the Bible. Joshua is falling before the Lord. They are defeated. "Oh why have You taken us out of Egypt? Did we not tell You?" And the Lord is looking at Joshua and says, "What are you doing? Get up. I did not do this." That was what I was running into. It is one of those things that the Lord's going, "Well, are you going to just keep blathering like that? The clock is ticking. You got to do something here."

So I said, "Well Lord, what am I going to do?" He said, "Open your mouth and I will fill it." Oh my God. It's what I already did. I opened my pen. Now look what trouble I am in. The Lord said, "Open your mouth and I will fill it."

I am leaning out the window of the Mount Zion hotel and here is what happened. The only thing I am thinking is that I have to figure out how to talk to like the 20,000 people that I think are listening to me about this subject and maybe the 6,000 that might have gotten this book by now. I will try to neutralize the damage. So I am hanging out the window on Facebook live and I said, "Well I guess you heard about the latest. Here I am in Zion and I am looking over the Kidron Valley. I am looking out here. This is an interesting place to be anyway. So I have heard about the Access Hollywood video and I said, "Did the Lord not know about this? Of course the Lord knew. Doesn't the Lord know that this is so devastating, that this is almost impossible for someone to recover from!" I'm actually having this breakdown right in front of a live audience. "Why would the Lord let the devil do this right now? Obviously He knows what He is doing. So, with that thought in mind, remember Donald Trump said he never had a sin he could repent for? Well, now he has one! You see, it is all coming together." This is the most rambling logical explanation. So I said, “Therefore, I believe this is good news. Let’s not give up the ship quite yet because there is no way he can avoid this one and he is going to have to humble himself.”

I continued, “Now why would the Lord humble him? Why would the Lord? This is a circumcision. This is a severe operation right now. Why would the Lord be doing that? Because, this way when he becomes President, he will have been humbled in order to be exalted. He will never be able to take credit because he knows there is no way this could possibly happen after he did something like this unless God did it. The only way he could become President is if God does it. And this is his humbling before promotion because God is not sadistic. He is not trying to hurt people. He is doing this as a necessary antiseptic so that this man takes no credit for the big surprise that is about to come.”

I cannot believe it. I am doubling down on my deception right there. I figured as I am talking, listen, I am already out on a limb I might as well saw it off and see what happens. Anyway, I said a few other things I will not say now. I do not want to need the security before we leave.

I continued, “So yes, he says things that are inappropriate. Yes, he does. But listen, when God brings a messenger to deliver a yes, you would like to have a nice, clean, shiny Isaiah with flowing robes and orations and articulation. And what does God send you? He sends you a rough haired Sampson who is clubbing Philistines. Yes, I agree. He is saying the wrong things. He is in big trouble with what he says, but God used Sampson and he was clubbing his enemies with the jaw bone of an ass. So God is going use whatever he says. Listen, I will tell you now, this guy has a torrid history of Philistine babes somewhere in his background so that is going to come out sooner or later. I am just letting you know, if they are reaching 10 years back then they got some stuff.”

I continued, “But I believe he has been getting prepared for 10 years. I believe that he has been in grooming. I believe he is the right man at the right time and I think God is saying something to the church. If you do not do it your way, I will do it My way. Rather than being sanctimonious and saying, ‘Well, I wish he would not tweet like that. Why does he have to say these things? Recognize that God is doing a kindness. You want to complain about what kind of delivery He sends you? How ridiculous! It sounds like complaining about a life raft because it does not have soft drinks in it or something. It is a life raft!’”

So, I hit send. I go back into the room. I figure this covers my bases with 20,000 – 30,000, maybe 50,000 people. And boy who knows, the book – it is all over in a week to two weeks anyway.

And then the guy comes back in my room and says, “Hey, see what's happening?” I think, “What now?” He said, “With that you said.” I said, “What do you mean with what I said?” He said, “Well, you should go check it out.”

Oh my God! It was like over a million people watching it right then. They could see what was going out from me. You know why? If you are having the right conversation at the right time, it goes viral.

So there is like 3-4 million people that never even knew about my deception, now they are hearing me double down on it. I was just doing Jewish insurance policy work and it ends up becoming a wholesale.

It was obviously after the fact, after it's all said and done, I realize that there is something more going on here. It is the part that I am urging you to catch, especially because you have such a power for intercession - such a powerful influence.

I will give you the verse because there are many verses we can go to, but this is the one and it is pivotal. I will go back and track back through where Jesus is promised and some where He is promised nations for His inheritance. Souls are in the nations. If you want to go for the souls, go for the nations. If you want to go fishing, you go with the line, you can go with the net. When you use the net, you are using the nation strategy. You go with a fishing line, you are doing individual evangelism. Both work.

Look at this in Revelation 21:24 "The nations are going to walk by the light of the City of God." What is the City of God? It is like a bride let down out of Heaven. So the bride is like a city. "The kings of the earth will bring their splendor into it." This is an NIV version. The King James is a little more Shakespearean and majestic. "And no day will its gates ever be shut and there will be no night there. The glory and honor of nations will be brought into it."

THE GLORY OF NATIONS

So let me just talk for a second about The Glory of Nations. Let's think about this for a second. The glory of nations. Donald Trump, the Lord told me, was a wrecking ball to the spirit of political correctness. The moment he emerges on the scene the Lord says - because Miley Cyrus had a wrecking ball album and everybody was looking at - and the moment that came out the Lord said, boom, Donald Trump is a wrecking ball to the spirit of political correctness.

I remember a couple of the African-American guys on his team. They wanted to meet in Atlanta and talk to me on a live TV program. I flew down there and they were looking so beautiful, dressed so elegantly. And me, I always look like a Jewish accountant. I am standing there and they all go over to the TV set. They are talking. And all of a sudden, the guy doing the television program looks over and he is pointing at me. He says, "Oh look, what we have here today?" I thought, "Oh, somebody knows who I am." He says, "We have a very important man - he is the number two man in the Trump organization. He is Donald Trump's personal attorney. Ladies and gentlemen let's call over Michael Cohen!" And he calls me over. I am standing there right, live on this television program in Atlanta.

I am feeling very conflicted right now because I feel like I have an obligation to tell the world I am not Michael Cohen. And then in the strangest moment in a kind of Seinfeld takeover, I go, "I am not Michael Cohen!" The guy says, "What?" I said, "I am not Michael Cohen!"

The guy goes, "Well, say something." I Said, "Donald Trump is a wrecking ball to the spirit of political correctness. Thank you."

I am walking back and off to the side and I said, "Oh my God, this is just so not my arena right now. This is emasculating to be in this place.

But then I am realizing something. I am realizing that the Glory of nations is what the Lord is about to unveil. He is going to take many of us who have not necessarily been involved in this chapter.

 Key: Convergence really often comes with new roles and new assignments and the recalibration takes us in a new direction.

I was not interested in or involved in this political thing at that time, but then I realized, as institutions collapse - as marriage and church and these things collapse, as media and education, and entertainment, and political parties gets more and more infested and taken over by strongholds that want to use these gates of influence to force nations into a certain alignment, we have no choice but to but to emerge like the hobbits. We are coming out of the Shire, and we have the ring around our neck. We have to go to Mordor and do something.

 Key: As we see the signs of the times, WE HAVE NO CHOICE but to emerge as the ones who have been given all power in Heaven and on earth who have gained air supremacy.

SHEEP AND GOAT NATIONS

Then I start to look at the glorious nations - realize all these countries are praying for the United States. Then I realize something strange is happening. It is Matthew 25:31-46 and I will go there later. This is when Jesus, the Son of Man, returns and is going to gather all the nations before Him and He is going to separate them as a shepherd separates his sheep from the goats.

This is a verse you have to recalibrate on because most of us have a rapture idea. My generation was focused on the rapture, focused on the Antichrist, focused on getting out, focused on an end time harvest, but it was always souls and a Reinhart Bonnke stadium and lots of miracles wherever we were. And now, I think the game has changed and we have to recalibrate to a more mature understanding. We are talking about nations. We are talking about nations. And when you are talking about nations, these institutions (education, media, arts and entertainment, etc.) are shaping the minds of nations right now.

There are two kinds of nations. They are going to end up being goat nations or they are going to end up being sheep nations. This is getting very sober because I am realizing the moment that Donald Trump - and this was the amazing thing - the moment that Donald Trump - he goes in and he was having a bad day. Nothing was happening right. So he decides - he likes to advance things and constantly do stuff. So, if he is getting frustrated about something, then it is not good. He should not be frustrated as he comes up with ideas to do stuff. And his ideas are brilliant. God works it out in His own way. But one night he makes a decision. He says, "I am going to move the Embassy to Jerusalem. I am just going to move it from here to there."

So he makes a decision to move the Embassy from here to there. He makes the announcement. The state department is all confused. He was not talking to anybody about the decision. It is just something he decided to do. You look at the Tweet - it is 2:00am in the morning. It was like he had to do something.

LANDMARK YEARS

So meanwhile we are talking about landmark years. It is 50 years that Aglow has been in existence. It is 120 years since the first Zionist foundation was formed - the first organization in Europe to create an Israel state. Then 70 years after that the United Nations formed Israel as it as a nation. We are dealing with the seventieth year. The fiftieth year after reoccupying Jerusalem. The 120th year after the Zionists found a foundation.

We are dealing, right now, with God's cosmic arithmetic and boundary items being put down.

 Key: You have crossed a moment and you are stepping into a whole new chapter. In that chapter is the era of Cyrus leaders and the formation of sheep and goat nations. You have to know this because it gives you a big template.

You know, I was studying and the guy says that the average IQ goes up 9 points when there is a picture to explain an idea. That is why I am always struggling to find a napkin illustration. If I could put it on a napkin, I know that I got it better.

So here is the deal. Cyrus Trump comes along. He decides he is going to move the Embassy to Jerusalem. Immediately there is a whole global flurry over it. What does this mean? Is it purely for the calculated people on TV? This is why you do not want an inexperienced man in the White House. He is not listening to the State Department. He is not taking his cues from any of the people that have studied this thing for 20 or 30 years and the truth is Donald Trump does not trust any of them. He is inquisitive. He asked questions. He comes to his own conclusions.

So he does the Embassy move. About the same time that he is doing the Embassy move, I had said this guy is a Cyrus because of Isaiah 45. I start getting hit by Salon magazine, Fox magazine, and New York Times and they are picking on me because I am an Evangelical. They would give me different labels. 'Dallas Evangelist' is my favorite one because as you know, that just warms the cockles of the heart for a liberal to hear about a 'Dallas Evangelist'. "Dallas Evangelist', Lance Wallnau claims that Trump is a biblical character." How can these people believe this stuff?

Now I'm getting these Google alerts on all these negative articles coming out on me being insane. What do you do? They go to Messiah College and they get a professor. "How is it possible for people like Lance Wallnau to actually say that Donald Trump is a Cyrus? He has Evangelicals thinking Donald Trump is a man of biblical proportions. How is that possible?" "Well this happens from time to time. It is called Visceral Theology. These Christians, they find a vessel and then they associate the person with the vessel and then the vessel becomes the person."

I got phone calls. You have comments on this going on. Oh my gosh! Isaiah 45. And at that very time, Donald Trump moves the Embassy. This is so delightful. I should have known. Listen, Ezra 1:1 "The word of Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet, after 70 years I am going to return My people. And so then the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus to make a decree so that God's people could be restored to Jerusalem." It was right there in the Bible but I was not reading it!

Anyway while they are picking on me and I am sitting there writing a little defensiveness on Visceral Theology – what is this guy talking about? Anyway Benjamin Netanyahu goes to the White House. The Prime Minister of Israel goes to meet with Donald Trump. He goes in there and he says, "Mr. President, the Jewish people have a long memory. Remember 2,500 years ago when Cyrus made a decree to return our people? And we remember you, Mr. President, for what you have done is historic in that same way."

CYRUS RULERS

Here is what you need to know about Cyrus rulers.

 Key: Cyrus rulers will fake out the church and the church needs to recalibrate. God wants to release the glory of nations. There is a glory in nations. In the book of Revelation it comes up and it is the glory of nations and its kings. It is people that are going to be discovering their kingly identity. They are going to be the key characters that are going to unearth that Glory.

 Key: People who are walking in their kingly identity are going to unearth the Glory in nations.

What is the glory of nations?

It is the hidden attributes that God has put within a nation to make them exhibit the Glory of God just like individuals are different in this room.

 Key: Every individual has an individual Glory and you exhibit it. But when you come together as a people group, you exhibit a collective Glory that reflects on the Lord. Does that make sense?

So for instance, you have the United States - if you look at motivational gifts – you have the office of prophet, and rulers, and exhorters, and mercy, and givers. If you look at just those motivational gifts, that is one aspect of Glory that is in a nation.

AMERICA, THE PROPHET NATION

America is a prophet nation. We have always been a prophet nation. That is why we keep coming up with innovations. We keep on pushing the envelope and coming up with ideas. We are the idea nation. We are constantly coming up with innovations. It is a pure prophet doing that. It is constantly a new idea. Constantly. And knowing that the restlessness of an airplane, or a road, or petroleum, or fuel, or a car, or a computer. I mean it is prophetic.

Then we are always challenging the world with new ideas. You go to Mexico, it is a servant nation. A servant nation is below us. Canada is a mercy nation. That is how come that they are always trying to be so tolerant.

So you have prophet. You have mercy. You have servant.

Nations have different levels of Glory. They reveal them. When you understand the Glory of a nation, you know how to support its articulation and manifestation. Think about this. We have to catch up on this.

The big push right now in this financial market over here and a lot of these guys are over here is, they want a one world government. They want global. Do you know what a globalist is?

 Key: A globalist is someone who cares less about the Glory of their nation and more about the prosperity of their enterprise.

They see the whole world as one mishmash, like a big cosmic stew.

Acts 17:26-27 God has made out of one blood all the nations. He has set their boundaries and the times of their habitation that happily they may look back after the Lord and find Him.

God sets the boundaries of nations. God set the boundaries of your bedroom. He set the boundaries of your house. He set the boundaries of your church.

 Key: Boundaries are the only way that you can keep witchcraft from encroaching on your own authority.

IT IS BIG

What you will see is, this government thing is bigger and bigger. As one guy said in China, he took me aside on that trip. He said, “No seven mountains. Only one mountain.” What? “In China one mountain. Government.”

Well that is certainly true. Do you realize that this past year the nation of China put more money into surveillance of their people than they put in their own military? They plan on controlling people. If you are 18 years old or younger, you are no longer allowed to go to church with your parents. China is a totalitarian train wreck waiting to happen. Donald Trump is the great Wrecking Ball event. Most people miss this.

In some nations the religious sphere will get out of control. It is not happening in Christianity now. It is happening in other religions. Government and religion - what happens when they get out of proportion? They end up taking over control over the over the glory of the nation.

What did Jesus say? He goes up to a high mountain. Satan take Him to a high mountain. He shows Jesus all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them. It is not the glory that is coming. It is the glory that is veiled.

UNVEILING GLORY

 Key: Our job is to unveil the Glory that is on the inside of the body of Christ and on the inside of nations.

Does that make sense to you? If you do not get that right now, you do not understand why Viktor Orban has risen up in Hungary and why Poland has risen up and why they recently elected the guy again who is president in Brazil. Those are Cyrus type rulers. And Christians miss it because they only want to know if the elected leader is a Christian. Some of them are, but that is not the issue.

The issue is what is the world view that they are bringing forth? They are trying and they are literally saying they want to restore the Judeo-Christian foundations of their nation so that it can exhibit its real strength.

You have goat nations and sheep nations right now in radical formation. And to a great extent the church does not know how to engage the battle. It is like the Jericho walls have fallen flat and we are all sitting there going, “What the heck happened? What are we supposed to do?”

We have to have an update. The update is your nation is to come to the Glory of God and your job is to unveil the Glory that is in your nation. You are the Glory investigators because the Glory is revealed by the church.

Here is a wild idea. You know what, we have the local church over here. But then how do we actually affect government? How do we actually affect media? How do we actually affect arts? This is a powerful thing.

Matthew 18:20 Wherever two or more gather together there I am in the midst of them.

How did Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego shape Babylon? They did not do it by having a synagogue revival. They were not allowed to do that. They did it by having a personal meeting with the four or five of them. When they got together, they sought the Glory of God, and God manifested Himself to them in that house. In that house they got revelation that would shift the empire.

AGLOW, YOU ARE STRATEGICALLY AND SPIRITUALLY POSITIONED

 Key: Do you understand the power of the small gatherings of people that are in their specific sphere of influence?

 Key: If God assigns you to a state, a county, or a city and you get together as two or three, watch what happens as the Lord begins to connect you with people in these individual spheres. You should be meeting with them, interceding with them, prophesying over them, putting a fire on them, because God has His people in these arenas. They do not know that they actually have the authority of a governing entity to be able to pray and release Heaven into a sphere.

Matthew 16:18 I will build My church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it.

 Key: If the gates are there (over the areas of influence), the church is going to have to go.

 Key: Where does reformation come from? If Donald Trump is a wrecking ball, he is not destroying things, he is arresting the progress of something that should not be happening in order to create space for something to be built – to create a space for something to take its place.

Reformation always happens from the top down. Revival happens from the bottom up. Grassroots. Grassroots feeds the fire. The areas of influence (mountain) is ‘big logs’. The grassroots is ‘kindling wood’ that gets lit faster. And if it burns strong, it affects the top of the mountain. And if it affects the top of the mountain, reformation is a slower process.

Revival is a faster process.

Nations do not change because of revival. Nations change because of reforming institutions, because of the influence the revival is having.

AMBASSADORS TO RELEASE GLORY OF NATIONS

 Key: How many of you are willing to be used as ambassadors to go to the top of the fields?

- » See what I have found out is, you do not even have to be the person that does it.
- » You can be the intercessors, the Firestarters that actually enable other people to do what they are called to do.

GATES OF FAVOR AND INFLUENCE

I believe the Lord wants to release that. I think He wants to give you the gates of influence. I think that He wants to give you the gates of favor and influence. I have seen it all over the place. Government does not matter. Arab nations. European nations. Asia. It is a strange thing. It is as though these places, these gates are opening up for ambassadors to go through.

 Key: There are Cyrus' already positioned all over the world to contend for the end time harvest of nations. What is a Cyrus?

- » Cyrus is a person with a deeply principled compass that God put on the inside of them to know right and wrong and what their country needs to do in order to go forward.
- » They have the courage to do it before they even existed.

FACE OF A LION, HEART OF A LAMB

One Amish man was prophesying to me. He said the Lord showed me - get this, it was a moment in time, it was a vision - a scroll came down out of Heaven. A finger went down and he said there will be a moment in time, in history when God is going to raise up individuals who are going to have the faces of lions, but the hearts of lambs. They will not seem to be religious, but they will know what to do in that moment of time.

I never forgot that. I said, "Oh my gosh! We have to look for who God has anointed for leadership and come alongside of them and be the indispensable consultant, counselor, intercessor, and friend so that they can fulfill the assignment that is on them because the Glory of nations is about to be revealed."

- » That is why you have to participate.
- » That is why you cannot just do it from here – the religious system.
- » You have to go into all the systems, the places of influence.

A GREAT AWAKENING

Does that make sense? We have revival coming from the bottom up. Reformation coming from the top down and where they meet you have a great awakening.

CLOSING PRAYER

- » I pray right now that in this room, ambassadors are going to be raised up the same way in which You have surprised me with access to places I did not even know existed.
- » I pray that everyone here is going to be able to go to the gates of influence and that they will empower those who belong and that they will inspire those that need to go
- » For those who are going to be like a city on a hill whose light shines, I pray, Father, there is going to be a radical invasion of the nations of the earth with the Glory of God to unveil the Glory that is already there.
- » I pray for the great global harvest of nations that is coming in.

- » I thank You, Father, that You are even shifting the apostolic, prophetic, and governmental mantles that are coming upon intercessors, to believe and to agree for even a greater clarity and demonstration of what it looks like when Heaven invades earth.

Thank You, Lord. Thank You, Lord.

- » Thank You Lord, that even when we are older that You are quickening our mortal bodies so that we who are older, Lord God, can be in the convergence zone knowing the precious time that we are in, knowing the mortality of who we are, and yet knowing the quickening Grace that comes.
- » We are humbled because we are older and therefore, Lord, we can run with the next generation and give to them the indispensable input they need to succeed in their race.
- » I am praying right now for your sons and daughters.
- » God is bringing households and He is bringing families in.
- » He is bringing family legacy into alignment.
- » He is bringing the Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob generations into alignment.
- » He is recalibrating, I prophesied, He is recalibrating and bringing your own bloodline in alignment with the high calling on your house.
- » And where there are gaps in these places where you have not seen it, where you have kind of raised your eyebrows about politics and media understand, there is a battle for the minds and hearts of nations and the Spirit the Lord is calling you to come up and be the truth antidote to error.
- » You are going to be raising up fixed fortifications against the darkness because Jesus is having His inheritance. Angels are waiting to get in on this. There are angels wanting this to happen. In the mighty Name of Jesus.

Everyone said Amen.
